TUESDAY, JUNE 15, 1875.

ON THE WING.

The two gentlemen—Whitehill and Stewart—appointed by the Executive Centennial Commission of Nevada—apparently work well in harness, and are doing splendid work. They are now in Eastern Nevada collecting specimens, etc., and wherever they go address the people on the object of their mission, drawing crowded houses. Mr. Whitehill brief but intelligently sets forth the purpose and arrangements for the celebration of the Centennial at Philadelphia, and shows what has been and is doing in other States, together with an exhibit of the magnificent results to be expected from the Exhibition.

The closing remarks of the speaker are confined to the national importance of the coming event, especially in re-establishing between the warring elements North and South the fraternal relations which bound the States together with bands of iron a century ago. Mr. Whitehill's appropriate and eloquent address is received with loud applause. Professor Stewart is then introduced to the meeting, and in his usual happy style, gives one of his instructive and entertaining scientific lectures, on geology, mineralogy, electrical phenomena, stratifications, fissure veins, etc.

SENATOR JONES IN WALL STREET.

A reporter of the San Francisco Chronicle has been interviewing Senator Jones about his operations in Wall street. Jones' version of the affair is somewhat different from that which has already been published on the subject. Jones ought to know. He says:

Oh, yes; I had one deal while this was going on. It was a small one, and made through Jay Gould. When it was thought that our proposed contract would be accepted by the Mail Company, the stock of that corporation was at 145. Gould said to Park one day that he thought it would touch 150 and then break. He proposed to make a small deal and be offered to take half and give us half of 10,000 shares. We told him to go ahead. He gave us 4,500 and kept the same number himself. He said he had bought 10,000, but he wanted to pinch 1,000 out of the purchase for a friend, which we agreed to. Park and I talked the matter over that afternoon, and concluded he might want to buy some more for his friend. We went to the broker and sold our 4,500 shares and 20,000 besides, so to make it easy for his friend to get all he wanted. We filled up our stocks at a profit of between $50,000 or $60,000, and that's the only deal I had in New York.

PREPARING IN TIME.

This is how the folks of Eureka are getting ready for the Centennial. The Sentinel has the annexed:

A number of our merchants are already preparing to attend the Centennial celebration next year. Some are setting aside small amounts of money each week for such a purpose; others are venturing into stock in a small way, and one Main street merchant has for some months past been storing away all the bits taken in at his store towards establishing a Centennial fund. He has already laid aside hundred or two dollars, and thinks he will manage to save a sum of money in this way sufficient to allow him to go to Philadelphia in grand style. It would be something of a joke if the Millerite prediction that the world comes to an end next November should prove correct. The atmosphere prevailing the Centennial that a good many would have to visit in such an event, would prove a serious drawback to the pleasures anticipated.

"DAN DE QUILLE" is now domiciled with Mark Twain, at Hartford, and is busily engaged in preparing his book for the press.

WHAT STANFORD SAYS.

Governor Stanford, President of the Central Pacific Railroad, informs a reporter of the San Francisco Post that the railroad company has paid all its political debts and retired from politics. He declares the company don't want any more subsidies, and wouldn't take them if they were offered. But perhaps it would be better to publish that part of the conversation between the reporter and Stanford:

Reporter—The Republican party has adopted an anti-railroad platform, and of course the Independents will follow suit. Do you propose to try and find or procure a plank in the Democratic platform upon which your Company can stand?

Governor Stanford—Not at all. We have no political fight to make.

Of course all of these conventions will adopt anti-railroad platforms, and when they have done so the fight is among themselves. They may all say what they please, but it won't affect our course a particle.

Reporter—And it is not the design of the company to endeavor to have a party in the Legislature in its interests.

Governor Stanford—No, sir! We propose to keep out of all political contests, as I said before, and will trust to the oaths of legislators to do what is right, if they are not hounded on and stirred up by partisan rancor and animosities. We can maintain what is right with any jury of fair minded men, and what is wrong we can't and don't want to. We might, perhaps, obtain a temporary triumph in a political contest, but it would be at the cost of greater disaster in the end. We don't propose to fight the people, nor be antagonistic to their interests. Every dollar of profit on our business is being expended in building new roads. We don't want any more subsidies, and we wouldn't take them if they were offered. It was our misfortune at one time that we were compelled to take them, but we would have been a great deal better off to-day had we been able to have got along without them. We have never asked for aid, but that the country would derive good from it, and we have lived up to the letter and spirit of our contracts with the Government, State, counties and municipalities. We proved our case before the last Legislature and utterly demolished the position taken by Governor Booth and his followers regarding freights and fares. We only charge high rates on costly goods where the risk of transportation is great, at remote places where there is little business, and on the mountains.

At this stage of the interview Dan Yost, the handsome private Secretary of the Governor, tickled Governor Stanford's left ear with the waxed end of his luxuriant moustache, and the reporter withdrew with an apology for having consumed so much of the valuable time of the railway magnate and retired politician.

NATIONAL GRANGE HEADQUARTERS.

The headquarters of the National Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry, which has been located in Washington city since its organization will probably be removed to Louisville, Kentucky, in a short time. At the last annual session of the National Grange in Charleston (S. C.), in February last, the Executive Committee was charged with the selection of a new location for headquarters in one of five Western States named, and the change to be made within six months from the 1st of March last. The Committee, it is understood, after due investigation, selected Louisville as the most eligible location. Kentucky stands number five as regards to the number of Granges, having but 1,559. Indiana heads the list with 2,027 Granges; Missouri, 2,003; Iowa, 2,014; Illinois, 1,484, and Kentucky, 1,559. The total number of Granges in the United States is 23,500, with estimated aggregate membership of 150,000. The total receipts of the Order from 1868 to 1871, inclusive, were less than $15,000, while the receipts for last year were $216,381. The Order at present has $69,000 invested in Government bonds and $10,000 in cash on deposit at the Financial Agency in New York.

NEVADA STATE NEWS.

No State outside of Pennsylvania has been more liberal than Nevada in donating money to make a display of its resources, and we are confident that the collection of minerals sent from this State will be a creditable one—even if it does not surpass anything of the kind from any other country.

The Nye county jail has been several weeks without an inmate. This is a blessing to the county treasury, if nothing more.

The coinage of twenty-cent pieces has been begun at the Mint in San Francisco. The coin weighs precisely the same as the coin turned out from the Carson Mint, but can readily be distinguished from it having a broader unmilled rim.

Immigrants over the Central Pacific Railroad are not as numerous as they were a month ago.

The visitors to Lake Tahoe are quite numerous this Spring. A large number of distinguished persons have already been there.

Since the rain storm the ranches in Carson Valley are looking splendidly. The grass is nearly ready for cutting, and the farmers expect a heavy crop the present season.

FARE TO THE "CENTENNIAL."

In answer to a correspondent who desires to learn "if any steps have been taken in regard to a reduction of fare on the railroad for 1876, that will give people of small means a chance to visit the Exposition and friends at the East," the San Francisco Call remarks that it has "several times stated, in reply to questions of this nature, that in due time the railroads will make their announcement with regard to fares to the Centennial. It is highly probable that very favorable rates will be given to the East during the Exposition." We hope to see the announcement of a liberal reduction soon, but we are skeptical about it.

If we can't have Grant—and the Republican party seems to be scared away from him—we should rather see Ben Butler in the White House than any man who has been named for that place, unless it be Phil Sheridan.—Carson Appeal.

Will our State never have an Insane Asylum of its own?

Nods.—W. T. Frank, of Frank & Myers, has returned from his trip to San Francisco. The sea breeze suited him, he says.

John F. Alexander, who has just graduated from the California State University, is home in Reno. He will remain with us. Glad of it.

Old John Poe returned to Reno yesterday. Poe will always be named in connection with the Peavine District.

THE demand for houses to rent is greater than the supply here at this time, and such has been the case most of the time for several years past. It is noticeable that most of the empty houses are for sale and not to rent. There are but few of even this class, and capital would be well employed in picking up these few—belonging to a restless, moving class of community—and in building more houses to rent.

THE first house which was built in the valley where Franktown stands was at the head of the valley. The original builders were compelled to flee from the country in 1854, because a boy 12 years of age killed an Indian, and for them to have remained would have been to have incurred certain death. Franktown proper was not settled till the Mormons came over in 1855. So says the Enterprise.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Hunter Gold and Silver Mining Company will be held July 7th. See the official notice of the Secretary.

THE dry season is again fairly upon us, and it behoves everybody at such times to exercise the greatest possible caution against damage by fire.

NATCHEZ.—This so-called Indian chief has been in attendance at the trial of Macky, Winnemucca, for murder.

Far Fetched and Dear Boxcars.—People who believe in those splendid chances for investment, Newark, Calistoga, Gerke, etc., are acting on this principle and will some day see it. Right here in our midst property may be bought for a little more than the improvements are worth—parties desiring to sell out and go into business elsewhere—yet we hear of people who have a little surplus money sending out and buying lots in these speculating schemes at ten to fifty times their intrinsic worth, on the supposition that sometime they may be valuable. Sometime, people who have made money here will be done going away to find homes, and then real estate here will be worth many times its present price.

FROM SURPRISE.—B. B. Norton and Dave Martin have returned from their trip to Surprise Valley. Norton confirms the unfavorable statements relative to the crops of that valley.

ASSESSMENT.—The Cleopatra Gold and Silver Mining Company has levied an assessment of two cents per share. See official notice in our advertising columns.

BOUND OVER.—The Indian who shot D. Schaffer at Verdi, was bound over yesterday by Judge Gilson, to await the action of the Grand Jury, in default of $1,000 bail.

BOOTS AND SHOES, ETC.—It is an established fact that these articles can not be got along without. Hence, it necessarily follows, that in the purchase of them we should not only look to price but to quality, for none of us desire to pay an extortionate price for an inferior quality of boot or shoe. There is no doubt but that John Sunderland can give us complete satisfaction in both respects. Then to Sunderland's, (on Virginia street), we will go, for boots, shoes, slippers, and all goods of that class.*

NEW GOODS.—Mrs. McNeely has just received a new and beautiful lot of goods of the latest styles and colors, consisting of ready made suits, dry goods, muslins, prints, white goods of all kinds, table linen, towels, napkins, black silk, hosiery, two-button gloves, gent's kid gloves, also handkerchiefs, ladies handkerchiefs, parasols, Spring shawls, corsets, zephyrs. Millinery and fancy goods of all kinds.

EL DORADO SALOON.—Conrad Zick has just taken charge of this place, opposite Wintermantel's Hotel. Every attention paid to the patrons. Musical headquarters.

NOTICE.—Mr. Nels. Greenman is no longer our authorized agent. Our patrons will govern themselves accordingly. ST. LEE & CO. *

INTERESTING TO THE LADIES OF KENO AND VACINITY.—The new dress-making establishment opened by the Misses Vance, an Plaza street, opposite the freight depot, will receive and make to order in the latest styles, all kinds of plain and fancy sewing.*

TO RENT.—Mr. Wm. Hoffman desires to rent his house on West street. A good tenant can make an excellent bargain.
